

Law360 Quotes Partner Paul C. Rosenthal on Steep Chinese Steel Rods Duties

September 2, 2014

Partner Paul C. Rosenthal was quoted in the Law360 article “Commerce Sets Steep Duties On Dumped Chinese Steel Rods.” The article discusses how the U.S. Department of Commerce will begin collecting initial tariffs of up to 110 percent on imports of carbon and alloy steel wire rod from China after determining that the products are being sold in the U.S. at unfairly low prices. Mr. Rosenthal, along with partners Kathleen W. Cannon and R. Alan Lubberda, represents ArcelorMittal and other companies, commented that “We are delighted with the results, and we expect a similar result in the final ruling.”
