

Law360 Quotes Partner Paul Rosenthal on PET Resin Investigation

October 18, 2017

Partner Paul Rosenthal was quoted in the Law360 article "Commerce Targets 5 Nations In Plastic Resin Dumping Probe." The U.S. Department of Commerce has decided they will conduct anti-dumping duty investigations of PET resin imports from Brazil, Indonesia, Korea, Pakistan and Taiwan after four U.S. producers filed petitions in September. "The imports have hurt the companies quite significantly," Paul said. "Their production has declined, their capacity utilization has declined, their profitability has declined. All of the measures of industry health have declined, so it's important to remedy the practices of these five countries."

DAK Americas LLC, Indorama Ventures USA Inc., M&G Polymers USA LLC and Nan Ya Plastics Corp. America are represented by partners Paul Rosenthal and Kathy Cannon, special counsels David Smith and Grace Kim and senior associate Brooke Ringel.

To read the full article, please click here. Access may require a subscription.