

Law360 Quotes Partner Thomas B. Kinzler on Real Mex Bankruptcy

November 4, 2011

The Law360 article, "Real Mex Gets Green Light to Auction Assets," covered the bankruptcy proceeding of the California-based, Real Mex, Inc. The company operates the El Torito, El Torito Grill, Chevys Fresh Mex and Acapulco Mexican Restaurant chains. The article stated, "Thomas Kinzler of Kelley Drye & Warren LLP, an attorney for the creditors, said the bidding for Real Mex would have to get to around $180 million to satisfy both the noteholders' debt and the $49 million DIP loan provided by General Electric Capital Corp." It also noted the creditors committee is represented by partners James S. Carr, Thomas B. Kinzler and Eric R. Wilson of Kelley Drye & Warren LLP.