

Law360 Reports Kelley Drye's Representation of Continental in $276M Arbitration Award Case

November 29, 2016

Law360 reported Kelley Drye's representation of identity card manufacturer Continental Transfert Technique Ltd. in "Nigeria Ordered to Talk or Face Sanctions in $276M Dispute." In an ongoing dispute over a $276 million arbitration award, a D.C. federal judge ordered Nigeria to prepare for a deposition over its U.S. assets or face sanctions. Continental is represented by partner Paul F. Doyle and senior associate Melissa E. Byroade.

To read the full article, please click here. Access may require subscription.