

Lexblog TV interviews Special Counsel Wayne D'Angelo: What Does Obama's 2nd Term Mean for Hydraulic Fracturing

December 20, 2012

Kelley Drye Environmental Law Special Council Wayne D'Angelo speaks to Colin O'Keefe of LXBN on what President Barack Obama's second term in office might mean for hydraulic fracturing. The interview covers some new federal regulations that may go into place and discusses why state governments may be best when it comes to governing hydraulic fracturing.