

MarketWatch Quotes Paul C. Rosenthal on ITC Affirmative Antidumping Decision

December 15, 2014

Partner Paul C. Rosenthal is quoted in the MarketWatch article "U.S. Producers Of Wire Rod Applaud International Trade Commission Affirmative Final Determination In Antidumping And Countervailing Duty Case Against China, Says Kelley Drye & Warren LLP." The article outlines the U.S. International Trade Commission's final vote to grant relief to the domestic wire rod industry from the dumped and subsidized imports from China. It also discusses the domestic producers' reaction to the final determination. Mr. Rosenthal, lead counsel to the petitioners said, "We have maintained throughout this case that the skyrocketing volume of imports of wire rod from China has injured the domestic industry with aggressive, dumped and subsidized prices. The domestic industry is extremely pleased that the Commission agreed and that the Chinese producers will now be subject to the discipline of trade orders to offset these practices."

To read the full article, please click here.