

Matt Luzadder Featured in Video on Nacha's Payment Innovation Alliance

February 27, 2025

Partner Matt Luzadder was featured in a video showcasing Nacha's Payment Innovation Alliance, where he shared his perspective on the value it brings to its wide-ranging, global membership.

The Alliance unites nearly 200 stakeholders—including financial institutions, fintechs, solution providers, corporates, law firms, and more—all of whom support advancements across the Automated Clearing House (ACH) network through discussions, educational programs, task forces, and other initiatives.

As a member of the Alliance, Kelley Drye has been actively involved, with multiple partners and attorneys presenting at its meetings and conferences.

To view the video, click here.