

Mitchell G. Mackler

Special Counsel

mmackler@kelleydrye.com

New York
(212) 808-7800

About

Before joining Kelley Drye, Mitchell Mackler's extensive in-house legal career was spread across many different industries, with executive managerial responsibility and deep experience working in cross-cultural environments.

Mitchell's practice is focused on the negotiation of complex agreements for the acquisition, licensing or sale of outsourcing services, information technology, and business information.

Mitchell was previously vice president, head of contracts for HCL Technologies Ltd. and vice president, deputy general counsel for Wipro Limited.

Affiliations

The Peddie School, member and board of trustees, 2019-present

Related Services

Corporate and Tax
India-U.S. Cross-Border Transactions and Disputes
Technology Transactions and Sourcing

Education

The George Washington University Law School, J.D., 1991

- with honors

Wesleyan University, B.A., 1988

- Economics

Admissions

New York, 1992

New Jersey, 1991