On March 4, 2015, Kelley Drye's Diversity Speaker Series featured Antonious Porch, Senior Vice President & Deputy General Counsel of Nickelodeon. Mr. Porch, who oversees business and legal affairs for several key businesses of the Nickelodeon Group, spoke about Nickelodeon's singular achievements in the kids entertainment space and discussed some of the legal regulations and policies that govern the industry. Mr. Porch also talked about his work as the Executive Champion of Emerge, Viacom's LGBT employee resource group. Complete with sizzle reels and video clips, Mr. Porch's presentation was both informative and entertaining.

Nickelodeon, a basic cable and satellite television network, is owned by Viacom.
