

NYC FCBA Holds “Meet and Greet” with FCC Commissioner O’Rielly: Video

November 30, 2017

The NY Chapter of the Federal Communications Bar Association (FCBA) held a “Meet and Greet” with FCC Commissioner Michael O’Rielly yesterday in Kelley Drye’s New York office. Jameson Dempsey, a Kelley Drye associate and co-chair of the NY FCBA Chapter, provided introductory remarks. John Heitmann, Chair of the Communications Practice group in Kelley Drye’s Washington D.C. office, led an armchair discussion with the Commissioner.

Discussion topics ranged from media ownership and net neutrality to spectrum policy and broadband deployment. The Commissioner also answered timely questions from the audience.

The video of the full discussion can be found here.

