

Nymity Privacy Compliance Alert Features Kelley Drye Client Advisory on Internet Privacy Hearing

August 5, 2011

The Nymity Privacy Compliance Alert newsletter featured a client advisory authored by the Privacy and Information Security practice group at Kelley Drye & Warren LLP, which was originally posted on Kelley Drye's website. The advisory, titled, "'Big Three' Weigh In On Online Privacy: FTC, FCC and NTIA Testify at Privacy Hearing," discusses a House of Representatives Subcommittee hearing on Internet privacy policy and perspectives of the FTC, FCC, and the National Telecommunications and Information Administration (NTIA). The hearing offered a review of the state of online consumer privacy and an appropriate response to developments in online behavioral advertising and tracking.
