

Partner Christie Grymes Thompson Mentioned in States News Service Article

October 5, 2009

Partner Christie Grymes Thompson was mentioned in a States News Service article titled, "2009 Sustainability Summit Promises Innovative Solutions and Essential Insights for a New Decade." The article reviews recent information released by the American Home Furnishings Alliance (AHFA), in which the company discusses developing and marketing "eco-friendly" home furnishings. The article announces that Ms. Thompson will participate in the 2009 AHFA Sustainability Summit December 2-3, 2009, at the Proximity Hotel in Greensboro, N.C. where she will present a session titled "Descriptive or Deceptive? How to Avoid the Risks in Green Marketing." Ms. Thompson is noted for advising clients on making truthful and non-misleading claims related to green seals and logos, recyclable and recycled products, sustainability initiatives, third-party certifications and other environmental attributes.