

Partner Deepak Nambiar Named to India Business Law Journal's 2019 International A- List

April 4, 2019

Deepak Nambiar has been named to the India Business Law Journal 2019 International A-list. The list reveals the top 100 India-focused legal experts outside the country.

As a member of the India practice group, Deepak advises clients on cross-border transactions involving the U.S. and India. According to a client, Deepak has “strong connections and deep understanding of the Indian legal system.” Deepak has a wide range of corporate and general commercial matters, with special emphasis on technology licensing, mergers, acquisitions, and outsourcing transactions. Deepak has been recognized as one of the top Internet and e-Commerce lawyers in The International Who's Who of Internet & e-Commerce Lawyers publication and most recently noted by US Legal 500 for his work in the Technology-Outsourcing area. In 2016, Legal Era Magazine selected Deepak to receive the Young Achievers Award of the Year, Law Firm Category.

To identify the top 100 international India experts, India Business Law Journal reached out to hundreds of lawyers at Indian law firms, as well as thousands of India-focused in-house counsel in India and around the world.
