

Partner Quoted in Carbon Control News and the New Yorker

April 10, 2007

Partner John Wittenborn was quoted in a Carbon Control News article about the Massachusetts v. EPA case. The article quoted remarks Mr. Wittenborn gave at an environmental law event at The George Washington University. Specifically, Mr. Wittenborn predicted that the states and environmental groups challenging the EPA would prevail in the claim that it lacks legal authority to regulate CO₂ under the air statute. Mr. Wittenborn was quoted in a New Yorker article about radioactive byproducts of steel manufacturing.
