

Partner William A. Escobar Featured as One of Nation's Top Law Firm Rainmakers in Diversity & The Bar

November 21, 2008

Partner and litigation co-chair William A. Escobar was selected as one of 16 attorneys nationwide by the Minority Corporate Counsel Association (MCCA). In the November/December 2008 issue, Diversity & The Bar, the publication of MCCA, featured the top minority attorneys from leading law firms in an article titled "Leading Law Firm Rainmakers--2008". The article highlighted the attorneys' substantive legal skills, acumen in developing books of business, abilities to build client relationships and their emphasis on client service. Mr. Escobar was profiled for his legal accomplishments and success in business development at the highest levels.

Based in Washington, D.C., the Minority Corporate Counsel Association was founded in 1997 to advocate for the expanded hiring, retention, and promotion of minority attorneys in corporate law departments and the law firms that serve them. MCCA accomplishes its mission through the collection and dissemination of information about diversity in the legal profession.
