

Partner William R. Golden Inducted as Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America

June 28, 2013

Partner Bill Golden, chair of Kelley Drye's Intellectual Property and Technology Litigation practice group, has been inducted as a fellow of the prestigious Litigation Counsel of America (LCA). Mr. Golden counsels clients on a broad range of complex intellectual property issues. He has litigated a number of high profile matters in the courts and before domestic and international arbitration tribunals under trademark, patent, and copyright statutes, as well as federal and state antitrust, trade secret, and unfair competition laws.

The LCA is a trial lawyer honorary society composed of less than one-half of one percent of American Lawyers. Fellowship in the LCA is highly selective and by invitation only. Fellows are selected based upon effectiveness and accomplishment in litigation, both at the trial and appellate levels, and superior ethical reputation. The LCA is aggressively diverse in its composition, with recognition of excellence among American litigation and trial counsel across all segments of the bar. The purpose of the LCA is to recognize deserving, experienced, and highly qualified lawyers, to provide an outlet for scholarly authorship of legal articles on trial and litigation practice, to provide additional sources for professional development, to promote superior advocacy and ethical standards in the practice of law, to assist in community involvement by its membership, and to advance a superior judiciary, by taking relevant positions on issues or legislation affecting judicial compensation and/or benefits, as well as those affecting the American litigation processes.
