

Ad Law Access Podcast: California advances CCPA amendments; Nevada and Maine pass laws to reign in "sale" of personal data

June 15, 2019

On a new episode of the Ad Law Access Podcast, Alex Schneider discusses the recently approved (four) bills to amend the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) and the Nevada and Maine Legislatures legislation that, like the CCPA, features new requirements relating to the sale of consumer personal data.

For additional information see the Ad Law Access blog posts:

- California Assembly Approves Amendments to Exclude Employees from CCPA, Protect Loyalty Programs
- Nevada and Maine Advance Legislation Addressing the "Sale" of Personal Data

The Ad Law Access podcast is available now through Apple Podcasts, Spotify, Google Podcasts, SoundCloud, and other podcast services.