

PowerUP Energy Thought Leaders Quarterly Forum: Commercializing Energy Resources

Kelley Drye Seminar

Firm Event

December 5, 2013

Chicago

Chicago, IL

On December 5, 2013 Kelley Drye & Warren and Navigant Consulting presented the first in a series of quarterly leadership programs structured to provide a high-level interactive, discussion, and analysis on some of the most pressing topics within the energy industry.

This forum brought together some of the Region's most prominent thought leaders including C-level executives, in-house counsel from Midwest-based energy companies, service providers, and investors in energy companies. Each quarterly leadership program will be highly participatory and conclude with a networking reception.

The first topic is Commercializing Energy Resources, with Jason Blumberg, CEO & Managing Director of the Energy Foundry, serving as the keynote speaker.

Related Services

Energy