

Preparing to File for the FCC's Rural Broadband Experiments

Fiber to the Home

Speaking Engagement

September 2, 2014

Washington, DC

On September 2, 2014 partner Thomas W. Cohen spoke at Fiber to the Home's event "Preparing to File for the FCC's Rural Broadband Experiments." The panel will discuss the Federal Communications Commission's recent decision to allocate $100M to fund Rural Broadband Experiments, seeking to bring higher bandwidth to previously unserved or underserved price cap areas. Mr. Cohen will review the rules and explain what is needed to file a potential winning application.

Related Services

Communications