

Privacy and Legal Considerations Ad Tech

December 1, 2020

Consumer privacy and the use of advertising technologies and online tracking are front-page news and present challenging legal questions. We will explore the latest developments in this area and provide guidance on avoiding risk and implementing best practices.