

Recent Developments in International and Other Trade Issues

2010 International Trade Update

Speaking Engagement

February 24, 2010

Partner Paul C. Rosenthal was a panelist at the Georgetown University Law Center's 2010 International Trade Update on February 24, 2010. The seminar was held at Georgetown University Law Center, in Washington, D.C. The program focused on all aspects and recent developments in international and other trade issues. Participants were provided with critical knowledge, skills and marketing ideas for their practice in international trade and customs law and explored, in detail, basics for litigating and handling customs and trade matters.

Related Services

International Trade