

Recycling Today Quotes Partner John Herrmann on Chinese Steel Dumping

September 14, 2016

Partner John Herrmann was quoted in the Recycling Today article "Commerce Department Finds China Dumping Stainless Steel." The U.S. Department of Commerce has reached a preliminary determination that imports of stainless steel sheet and strip from China are being sold at less-than-fair value in the United States. As a result, the Commerce Department says it will instruct U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) to require U.S. importers of stainless steel sheet and strip from China to deposit estimated anti-dumping duties at the time of importation. The Commerce Department's determinations follow the filing of anti-dumping and countervailing (or subsidy) duty petitions by domestic stainless steel sheet and strip producers AK Steel Corp., Allegheny Ludlum, North American Stainless and Outokumpu USA, LLC.
