

Red Flags Rule Identity Theft Prevention Program Master Policy

Dana B. Rosenfeld

April 8, 2010

The article provided a framework for developing, implementing, updating and administering a written identity theft protection program, which is required by the Federal Trade Commission's Red Flags Rule. The standard document contained integrated notes with important explanatory and drafting tips. The document can be used as a stand-alone reference or as part of an existing compliance policy.