

Risk Management Strategies

BuildingsNY 2005 Trade Show

Speaking Engagement

June 1, 2005

Special Counsel Steven Humphreys spoke on risk management strategies at a seminar sponsored by the Real Estate Education Center as part of the BuildingsNY 2005 trade show. In an effort to establish contacts in the building/property industry, a start-up client in residential, commercial and industrial environmental testing, with operations in the New York metropolitan area, Pennsylvania and Maryland, organized the seminar.
