With an increasing number of states enacting new and comprehensive privacy laws, we anticipate a material increase in enforcement by State Attorneys General. Join Paul Singer, Partner and Chair of the State Attorneys General practice, and Special Counsel Abby Stempson as they address the growing number of state privacy laws and discuss key topics including:

- What State AGs are focusing on in enforcement
- New state law requirements that diverge from prior models
- Best practices for dealing with an AG investigation
