

Spotting Consumer Protection Risks and Understanding State AG Enforcement Powers

Speaking Engagement

November 5, 2025 from 2:10 pm to 3:10 pm (EST)

Special Counsel Abigail Stempson and Beth Chun will be facilitating the session "State Attorneys General and Consumer Protection: Enforcement Powers, Trends, and Compliance Strategies" during the Spotting Consumer Protection Risks and Understanding State AG Enforcement Powers webinar hosted by the Federal bar Association and myLawCLE.

This session offers a foundational synopsis of how state attorneys general (AGs) protect consumers and what that means for businesses operating today. It highlights the legal authority AGs have under state Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices (UDAP) statutes and outlines the implications for violations of those laws

Key topics to be discussed:

- Synopsis of AG enforcement powers and other efforts to protect consumers, and how they impact business operations
- Multistate investigations and coordination with federal agencies
- Common areas of scrutiny and emerging trends
- Best practices for compliance and proactive engagement with AG offices

Learn more about the webinar and register here.

Related Services

State Attorneys General