

Strategies for Successful Partnering between Law Firms and Corporate Clients

Georgetown Corporate Counsel Institute Program

Speaking Engagement

June 10, 2005

Partner Robert L. Haig moderated a program at the Georgetown Corporate Counsel Institute entitled "Strategies for Successful Partnering between Law Firms and Corporate Clients." The subjects covered by the panel included budgeting and controlling costs; resolving disputes and managing legal risks; improving compliance, corporate governance and ethics; and completing transactions and giving business advice.

Related Services

Litigation