

Tamara P. Zapata

Associate

tzapata@kelleydrye.com

New York
(212) 808-7734

About

Tamara Zapata is an associate in the firm's New York office.

During law school, Tamara gained valuable experience as a legal student intern for the Federal Litigation clinic for Lincoln Square Legal Services and as a legal intern for the Manhattan District Attorney's Office. Additionally, she served as the President of the First-Generation Student Group and the Vice President of the Latin American Law School Association.

Related Services

Bankruptcy and Restructuring

Education

Fordham University School of Law, J.D.

- cum laude
- Crowley Scholar, Leitner Center for International Law and Justice, Urban Law Journal, online managing editor, Brendan Moore Trial Advocacy Center, business affairs editor

Augustana College, B.A.

- magna cum laude
- Political Science; International Business

Admissions

New York

Languages

Spanish