

The Business End of SRRA: The Effect on Transactions Involving Contaminated Property

Steven L. Humphreys

July 20, 2009

The article analyzes the New Jersey Site Remediate Reform Act. This Act directs the NJEPA to establish a licensed site remediation professional program that licenses and audits consultants working on site remediation projects without NJDEP oversight and to certify the remediation complied with legal requirements.