

The Deal Pipeline and thedeal.com Note John M. Herrmann II Elected Partner

July 9, 2012

The Deal Pipeline and thedeal.com reported John H. Herrmann II was named a partner at Kelley Drye & Warren LLP. The publications noted Mr. Herrmann works in the international trade practice group in the Washington, D.C. office. They also stated Mr. Herrmann returned to Kelley Drye in 2009, following five years of working in the Bush administration. In the White House, he worked in the National Security Council staff, as special assistant to the president and senior director for international trade, energy and environment.

<http://www.thedeal.com/movers/>