

The Deal Pipeline Reports on Kelley Drye's Merger with Jackson Gilmour

December 8, 2016

The announcement of Kelley Drye's merger with Jackson Gilmour & Dobbs PC was mentioned in The Deal Pipeline article "Movers & Shakers: General Atlantic Promotes Three." Joining Kelley Drye from Houston are founders William J. Jackson and John D.S. Gilmour, as well as partners Kenneth O. Corley and William C. Petit. Mr. Jackson and partner William M. Guerry Jr. will co-chair the environmental law practice group.

"The attorneys from Jackson Gilmour & Dobbs bring impressive litigation, regulatory and environmental experience that complements Kelley Drye's existing practices," said partner and firm chair James S. Carr in a December 1st statement. "One exciting area enhanced by the addition of Jackson Gilmour & Dobbs is our State Attorneys General practice which we expect to be in high demand when the new administration takes over in January."