

The Future of Consumer Protection and Privacy - What to Expect from the FTC

California Lawyers Association: Shelter In Place Institute

Speaking Engagement

November 10, 2020 from 12:20 pm to 1:20 pm (EST)
Washington, DC

As the election approaches, our government prepares for a transition – either to the second term under President Trump or to the Biden Administration. As this is occurring, consumer protection law also finds itself in transition. Partners Christie Grymes Thompson and John Villafranco will focus on what this means, in terms of recent enforcement activities and priorities related to privacy, data security, marketing, advertising, and other areas of consumer protection.

Related Services

Advertising and Marketing
Privacy and Information Security