

The Future of Consumer Protection & Privacy: What to Expect from the New FTC

Firm Event

September 27, 2018 from 12:00 pm to 1:00 pm (EDT)

Washington, DC

Webinar

Last week, the Federal Trade Commission began holding historic multi-day public hearings examining its past and future policy and enforcement approach relevant to consumer protection and privacy. Kelley Drye partner Alysa Hutnik participated in the first session, “The Current Landscape of Competition and Consumer Protection Law and Policy.”

Please join Christie Grymes Thompson, chair of Kelley Drye’s Advertising and Marketing and Consumer Product Safety practices, part of the firm’s Advertising and Marketing and Privacy & Information Security practices, as she discusses insights from that first session, what to expect from future sessions that will address consumer protection and privacy policy, the new FTC chair and commissioners, and anticipated agency priorities.
