

The Metropolitan Corporate Counsel Interviews Associate Michael Dover

January 22, 2015

Associate Michael R. Dover was interviewed in the Metropolitan Corporate Counsel article "The Year Ahead for Communications Providers." The article focuses on communications providers and issues they may face in 2015. The interview begins by outlining various types of providers and major issues such as the Telephone Consumer Protection Act before focusing on issues related to specific services. Mr. Dover ends the article by saying, "2015 is on pace to be an exciting year for these industries, and we look forward to helping our clients keep pace with the changing legal landscape."

To read the full article, please click here.