

The Metropolitan Corporate Counsel Interviews Partner Philip D. Robben on International Arbitration

July 1, 2012

In The Metropolitan Corporate Counsel Q&A, "The Nuts and Bolts of International Arbitration," partner Philip D. Robben provides an overview of current trends, including the importance of evolving technology. Mr. Robben discusses specific points, which parties can agree to beforehand and what they can expect from the process. Mr. Robben highlights key matters that should be specified in a contract clause relating to international arbitration. He discusses the benefits of arbitration in international disagreements. Finally, he addresses the enforcement of decisions.