

The Metropolitan Corporate Counsel Interviews Partner Richard S. Chargar

July 1, 2011

In The Metropolitan Corporate Counsel Q&A, "Current Issues in Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation," partner Richard S. Chargar discussed the latest regulatory and legislative developments. The article includes information on the Department of Labor's Employee Benefits Security Administration's 2012 disclosure requirements, strategies to reduce costs in benefit programs, and information on the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA) and Say-on-Pay requirements. It also reviews company responses to this proxy voting season and marketing efforts regarding compensation strategies.