

The Metropolitan Corporate Counsel Notes Arrival of Mark A. Konkel

October 28, 2013

The Metropolitan Corporate Counsel reported partner Mark A. Konkel has joined Kelley Drye. The article reported that Mr. Konkel joins the Labor and Employment practice group in New York. Formerly co-managing partner at Ford & Harrison's New York office, Mr. Konkel brings a wide range of labor experience to Kelley Drye. He represents clients in a variety of industries, including manufacturing, retail, aviation, education, financial services and hospitality and has extensive experience in collective bargaining negotiations, union organizational efforts, and labor-related litigation, as well as proceedings before the National Labor Relations Board and National Mediation Board.

To read full article, click on link below.