

The Metropolitan Corporate Counsel Reports James S. Carr as New Chair

January 19, 2015

The Metropolitan Corporate Counsel reported on the election of James S. Carr as chair, succeeding Paul McCurdy, and the appointment of Lewis Rose as firm managing partner, succeeding James J. Kirk. Mr. Carr and Mr. Rose are leading a cross-office management team, reflecting the firm's presence in six cities nationwide. "Today, Kelley Drye is well-positioned to keep evolving with the future needs of our clients, and I look forward to working with my partners as our 179-year tradition of providing quality legal counsel continues," said Mr. Carr.

To read the full article, please click here.