

The Top 5 Export Compliance Risks for 2026 as EAR Enforcement Heats Up: Deemed Exports, The Proposed 50% Rule, and More

ACI's 2nd Annual Trade & Sanctions Compliance and Enforcement Conference

Speaking Engagement

January 29, 2026 from 3:45 pm to 4:30 pm (EST)

Kelley Drye Special Counsel, Lindsey Roskopf, will join this panel to examine the rapidly evolving export controls and screening landscape, including BIS's new "Affiliates Rule," heightened challenges in identifying foreign subsidiaries of restricted parties, expanding controls on AI and advanced computing, and emerging diversion and circumvention risks affecting energy and technology companies. Panelists will also address China's increasingly sophisticated export control regime and explore how organizations should recalibrate from traditional compliance models toward broader trade risk management strategies amid accelerating global policy change.
