

Thomas B. Kinzler

Retired Partner

tkinzler@kelleydrye.com

New York
(212) 808-7800

About

Thomas Kinzler's practice focused on complex commercial litigation, securities law and arbitration matters. He also led the litigation team on complex patent matters in conjunction with Kelley Drye's Intellectual Property group.

Tom represented clients in jurisdictions throughout the United States. He handled numerous jury and non-jury trials, and was involved in more than 30 arbitration proceedings before the American Arbitration Association (AAA) in New York City, as well as proceedings before the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC).

He is currently a life partner in the firm.

Honors

Listed in New York Super Lawyers, 2009-2010 and 2013-2018.

Education

Boston University School of Law, J.D.

Columbia University in the City of New York, B.A.

Admissions

New York

Courts

U.S. Court of Appeals-Second Circuit

U.S. District Court-Southern District of New York

U.S. District Court-Eastern District of New York

U.S. District Court-Northern District of New York

U.S. District Court-Western District of New York

U.S. District Court-Western District of Texas

U.S. District Court-Western District of Wisconsin