

Timothy Hopper

Associate

thopper@kelleydrye.com

New York
(212) 808-7742

About

Timothy Hopper's practice focuses on commercial litigation and dispute resolution. He manages various stages of the litigation process, including pre-litigation resolution, discovery, and dispositive motions.

Timothy's experience includes representation of pharmaceutical manufacturers, state governments, and technology companies.

During law school, Timothy worked for the Walter Leitner International Human Rights Clinic at Fordham Law School.

Experience

Representing the State of Maryland and all State agencies in bringing claims for costs and damages resulting from the DALI's allision with the Francis Scott Key Bridge in the Port of Baltimore in March 2024.

Member of a team representing a client in litigation concerning corporate subterfuge and the conversion of cryptocurrency assets.

Member of a team representing a pharmaceutical manufacturer in a breach of contract lawsuit under New York law that resulted in a favorable settlement of the claims.

Member of a team representing a generic pharmaceutical company in an antitrust multi-district litigation involving allegations of country-wide price fixing schemes.

Related Services

Litigation

Education

Fordham University School of Law, J.D., 2023

- Fordham Urban Law Journal

SUNY New Paltz, B.A., 2015

- Political Science

Admissions

New York, 2024