Partner Alysa Hutnik will be presenting "Watch Out For These CTV Privacy Risks" at CTV Connect 2025 in New York City. As advertisers, publishers and their partners spend a lot of time thinking about online privacy compliance, a lingering privacy-related question that companies often grapple with on the web is a potential privacy risk on connected TV. In addition, CTV is also its own beast, which further complicates matters. Alysa will help the audience navigate the thicket of privacy compliance in streaming environments.
