

What An Illegal Price-Fixing Bot Might Look Like

David H. Evans

April 19, 2017

Partner David Evans authored the Law360 article “What An Illegal Price-Fixing Bot Might Look Like.” In the article, David examines five hypothetical scenarios of how a bot that a manufacturer programs to set the price of its product, sometimes in response to prices set by its competitors, could potentially engage in illegal price fixing and violate the Sherman Act.

To read the full article, please click here. Access may require a subscription.