

Who's Watching Me? – A Discussion of Parallel Proceedings

Speaking Engagement

April 12, 2011

Chicago

The Mid-America Club
Aon Center
200 E. Randolph Dr.

Chicago, IL

Partner Julian Solotorovsky participated in a panel discussion regarding government investigations, how agencies such as the Department of Justice and the Securities and Exchange Commission share information about companies and individuals they are investigating, and the disclosure options and appropriate courses of action for companies in dealing with parallel proceedings.

The program was part of Law Bulletin Seminars' White Collar Crime & Corporate Governance Conference.

For more information, please click here.