

Winning Commercial Cases Before Trial: Advice from the Experts

American Bar Association Section of Litigation Virtual Annual Conference

Speaking Engagement

May 6, 2021

New York

Partner Robert Haig moderated a panel titled, “Winning Commercial Cases Before Trial: Advice from the Experts” at the American Bar Association Section of Litigation Virtual Annual Conference on May 6, 2021. This program provided practical guidance and strategies to succeed in commercial cases prior to trial, focusing on maximizing the effectiveness of each pre-trial stage of litigation. Topics included investigation of the case, choosing the proper forum, dispositive motions, selection of experts, depositions and other discovery, provisional remedies, and ADR strategies.

Related Services

Commercial Litigation
Litigation