What is it like to live in someone else's shoes? In some ways we can never fully know the answer, but in other ways this is a central question for the Christian life. This evening is about trying to gain a greater understanding of the many way in which people of color are oppressed in the U.S., and ways that white Christians practically can join the Lord in working for "righteousness and justice for all who are oppressed." Join us at New Life Philly. For more info., visit newlifephilly.net.
