

Sunday, June 9, 2019

Dave White

- Immovable

Perseverance

1 Corinthians 15:50-58

(black Bibles page 962; Children's Bibles page 1433)

Introduction

- Always Abounding

Motivation for Perseverance

- Death devoured

- Not in vain

- Radical renewal

- Conquering King

Characteristics of Perseverance

- Steadfast

Reflective Questions:

1. How do you think it would it make a difference if you spent time meditating on the hope of the new creation? (If you need fodder, check out: Isaiah 11:1-9; 35:1-10; 65:17-25; Ezekiel 47:1-12 [a personal favorite]; Revelation 21-22)
2. Describe the hope of our victory in Jesus. Which aspects articulated in the passage are most exciting for you? Death defeated? Sin overthrown? A transformed bodily existence?
3. Where are you in danger of being movable and slack in your labors? Losing hope in the promises? Sucked into the idolatry of the day? Be specific.
4. How would your priorities change (time, money, energy) if you lived wholeheartedly for the coming inheritance? Where would you be excited to pour out your life for the kingdom?