VIGNAIOLI SCANTIANUM VERMENTINO – TUSCANY, ITALY	14	54
A blend of Vermentino and Sauvignon Blanc from the Tuscan coast. This lovely wine wakes up the senses with a rich bouquet of floral and fruity notes enriched by charming mineral nuances. The palate is fresh with intense citrus flavors and a nice weight, long and persistent finish.
CAMPET ST. MARIE CHARDONNAY – LIMOUX, FRANCE	11	42
Grapes are planted on steep hills on limestone soils in cooler areas locally called “Campet” contributing to making a Burgundy style Chardonnay. The aromas of stone fruits, citrus and oak spice lead to a round, fleshy, mouthful of Honeycrisp apple and Bosch pear flavors accented by lemon drop. On the finish a touch of butter and refreshing acidity makes it just delicious.
COUR DE LA ROCHE SAUVIGNON BLANC – TOURAINE, FRANCE	11	42
From one of the oldest single estates of the Loire Valley, this Sauvignon presents itself with aromas of ripe fruit and citrus; a wonderful taste of ripe guava fruit emerges on the palate reflecting traces of minerality and its hallmark of crisp acidity.
PINE RIDGE VIOGNIER BLEND – NAPA, CA	12	46
This medium-bodied wine tastes vivid and tangy but also boasts rich, ripe and round characteristics that broaden the flavors and lead to a lingering finish. The Chenin Blanc notably high acidity and unique flavor of flower and damp straw add a layer of complexity that really wake up the taste buds.
CHALK HILL RUSSIAN RIVER CHARDONNAY – SONOMA, CA	14	54
Aromas of lemon, zested orange peel and a hint of toasty marshmallow. Balanced and full of concentrated flavors of lemon oil followed by rich and creamy minerality. Long, rich and elegant.
PIATELLE PREMIUM RESERVE TORRONTES – CAFAYATE, ARGENTINA	12	46
From one of the highest vineyards in the world this elegant and Gold Medal award winner Torrontes is a wonderful rendition of the grape. White flowers and bursting tropical fruits on the nose; the aromatic notes resonate in the mouth showing plenty of dried-lemon, grapefruit and apple character. Crisp, layered and delicious.

ROSÉS

REID'S ROSÉ - CALIFORNIA	12	N/A
Pale pink with orange highlights, our Rosé carries a complex range of fruit characters including cherry, peach, rhubarb, and red apple, as well as fresh, zesty acidity. Notes of orange peel and a subtle savory personality are marked by soft notes of salinity.

REDS

THE ALEX COOPER PROJECT RAFANELLI VINEYARD – DRY CREEK, CA	14	47
A remarkable blend of Zinfandel and Petit Sirah made in a minimalist style. Aged 8 months in neutral barrels and held back in the bottle for five years prior to release. It pays homage to Italian style wines in honor of the Italian immigrants who helped develop the Dry Creek Valley. A rare combination of restraint and finesse, pure and exotic, with lovely blackberry fruit and earthy notes and a silky finish.
BAGUERI CABERNET SAUVIGNON – PRIMOSKA, SLOVENIA	16	62
A full bodied and elegant Cabernet deep in color with purple reflections. The most enticing aromas of blackcurrant, plum marmalade, cocoa and dark chocolate boost from the glass provoking you to take the first sip. The palate is velvety rich, with soft tannins, extremely harmonious and complex.
B. MATSU “PICARO” TEMPRANILLO – TORO, SPAIN	12	46
Wines produced in this region of Spain embody precision and power intended to subdue any individual with its intense aromas, profound flavors. Picaro is made from 80 year- old vines and even as a young fresh wine possesses intense aroma of blackberries and blueberries, slowly releasing mineral notes and adding complexity to the wine. The palate is dominated by black plums, cherries, currants. Mild tannins linger on the finish.
JUGGERNAUT CABERNET SAUVIGNON – CALIFORNIA	14	56
French oak beautifully transforms intense mountain fruit into a wine with uncommon richness, yet smooth and luxurious texture. Juggernaut Hillside Cabernet is a wine that is fierce, brave, and delicious. Luxurious texture with black currants and vanilla.
GUILLAUME GONNET “LE MAESTRO”- CÔTE DU RHÔNE, FRANCE	15	58
Made by one of the most admired winemakers of the region Gonnet created another wine gem. A blend of Grenache, Mourvedre and Syrah grown in blue clay and polished stones. Tree bark, savory smoked herbs with ripe dark fruits in the nose; powerful, rich with earthy and spice components.
CHÂTEAU DE MACARD BORDEAUX – BORDEAUX, FRANCE	17	66
Ch. de Macard is in the village of Pessac sur Dordogne. The terroir is exceptional and unique to the area, it has all the components to make a great wine including limestone, gravel and clay to give power. Elegantly perfumed with a smoky character lying over blackberry fruit. First sip and the wine burst with mineral, plum and freshly cut violets.
CH. DE PONCIÉ LE PRÉ ROI “FLEURIE” GAMAY CRU – FRANCE	15	58
Brilliant color reflecting violet nuances; intense powerful aromas of fire- wood, berries, and mint. Violets and peonies complete the complex nose while the palate is enhanced by cherry and blueberry fruit caressed by delicate spicy drops and a remarkable length.
VAJRA ROSSO LANGHE – PIEMONTE, ITALY	11	42
This Langhe Rosso is red blend of heirloom varieties, including Nebbiolo, Barbera, Dolcetto and the rare Freisa grape. An aromatic expression of a young Nebbiolo, smooth, savory red offers aromas of ripe black-skinned fruit, eucalyptus and the barest whiff of truffle. The round, succulent palate delivers black cherry jam, white pepper along with chewy tannins.
