

Opportunity for Jewelry-makers in Bali

Artisans in remote areas of Bali, Indonesia, lack a market for their crafts and struggle to find employment. Sudatra and her husband run a small jewelry workshop that was built with funding provided by Serrv's partner Mitra Bali, and they employ four artisans. She shares, "Thank you for buying our crafts. Your orders help us and our neighbors send our children to school."

