A flurry of good stuff! First off today is Missions' Sunday. In case you didn't know, it's the day where our total contribution goes to mission work! Give BIG! And, in case you read your edition of Vision early - we are also having doughnuts and drinks at 8:15 am in the kitchen from the elders and ministers! Everyone invited!

Up next Saturday, May 9, is Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive! Hard to believe it's here already. This week we have 10-20,000 bags and postcards to fold and put together. We have to have these back to the Post Office by Wednesday - so get ready to help. If you signed up to drive, pick or sort be watching your email for when we begin. It's going to be a grand day.

Coming next is "A Good Day in May." May 17 after the morning services you're all invited to a big picnic!! We'll have our evening services at the picnic. It's going to be a grand day and a great time to bring a bunch of friends.

Then the week after that is our return to El Salvador for our mission campaign. We will impact that area eternally! Be praying about all of this. We are certainly blessed. I hope you are loving living these days here!

Stamp Out
Hunger is Saturday,
May 9!

We still need help stapling the postcards and bags! They are due back to the post office on Wednesday. Also, SIGN-UP today for Stamp Out Hunger jobs at the building. If you are not driving or helping on a postal route, we need you at the building. We have to weigh in the food, mark through bar codes, sort and box the food, etc. Thank you!!
